AFTRS Indigenous Kids Animation Workshop
18th to 19th April 2011

For kids aged between 9-13 years old.

This two day animation workshop is designed to be creative, great fun and educational. Kids will get to develop their own animated films and bring their imagination to life!

Taught by professional animators, a range of animation from claymation, (think Wallace and Gromit) to cartoons will be explored.

All kids will put together their own animated shorts that they can take home on DVD.

A wonderful opportunity for kids to work in a real life environment with great teachers and make new friends!

Applications are on a first in, first served basis and the workshop will be held at AFTRS Sydney, The Entertainment Quarter, Moore Park, from 9am to 5pm, April 18th and 19th.

For further information email: indigenous@aftrs.edu.au or call Pauline Clague 02-9805 6416 Tuesdays or Thursdays.

AFTRS has the right to exclude a participant:

- If the participant is under 18 and has not submitted an Under 18 Consent Form signed by a parent/guardian or carer
- If a participant breaches any of AFTRS policies (please review on our website)
- As permitted by law
- If a participant is continually late

Due to restriction on minimum and maximum numbers you are not guaranteed placement.

Under 18 course participants must supply their own lunch, drinks morning and afternoon tea will be provided. AFTRS asks that participants do not bring or consume any nut products on the days they attend AFTRS.

Participants should wear comfortable clothes and must wear enclosed shoes (high heels, thongs and sandals are not appropriate in studio environments and cannot be worn unless specifically advised by a tutor. All participants should bring a sweater/jumper; despite the weather studio environments are often cold. Students undertaking a visual effects course or those courses involving 'green screens' should avoid green clothing unless advised by their tutor. Special clothing requirements will be advised on a course by course basis.

AFTRS provides supervision during course hours only. Parents/guardians/carers are responsible for informing AFTRS of:

- Any access restrictions relating to a participant, such as those imposed by a court order
- Any arrangements made to collect a participant

AFTRS will release children into the nominated parent/guardian/carers care only, unless prior arrangements have been made.

Parents/guardians/carers must advise AFTRS in writing of any medical or allergic conditions or other special circumstances the student may have and any reasonable accommodations they may require. AFTRS has no specialised medical practitioner on site and in the event of an emergency will contact the nearest hospital. Medical costs incurred including ambulances will be borne by the student or carer. AFTRS can take no responsibility for administering medication during a course.

AFTRS may photograph or record audio or video of participants during course activities and use these photos or recordings for promotional, advertising, archival and accountability purposes. AFTRS will not identify a participant by their full name without express permission of their parent/guardian/carers.

Unless public or parent screenings have been programmed in as part of a course there is no access or observation available to carers or friends.

DVDs, CDs and other recordings are not provided unless clearly stated in the course outline.

All course participants who attend a course in its entirety will receive a Certificate of Completion at the end of the course.

Students should familiarise themselves with copyright laws prior to posting any material on Youtube or other websites. They should ensure they do not violate any copyright law. For further information visit www.copyright.org.au

All AFTRS tutors are skilled professionals and have been screened to ensure they meet with all legal requirements pertaining to 'Working with Children'.
