

SHARK ISLAND FOUNDATION DOCUMENTARY AWARD For the Best Social Impact Documentary

The Shark Island Foundation Documentary Award is awarded annually to an outstanding documentary project (in any platform) undertaken while enrolled in an AFTRS Award course. The project can be at any stage (ie a trailer, a cut, or a completed documentary) but it must show strong outreach and educational potential. Treatments for potential projects are not eligible.

The award of a grant of up to $10,000, $5,000 is awarded directly to the winner and up to $5,000 towards an outreach and education program for their documentary. Mentorship with the executives of Shark Island will also be provided to assist with the creation of an effective outreach campaign.

Eligibility - All 2011 AFTRS students studying award courses are eligible to apply.

Deadline - A completed application form must be emailed to julia.avenell@aftrs.edu.au, and a DVD copy of the documentary along with a hard copy of the application form must be delivered to AFTRS Student Services or left in the red box in the Student Services foyer, or posted to:
